

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

HAMPTON DEFEATED

Combination of Hard Luck and Errors Assisted Cape Charles.

FINAL SCORE STOOD 7 TO 5

Cunningham Made Three Hits, Three Runs and Caught Clever Game. While Hopkins Had a Home Drive to His Credit.

The Hampton Young Men's Christian Association baseball nine met its first defeat of the season in Cape Charles yesterday afternoon, when the team of that town won by the score of 7 to 5.

The game has a heart-rending tale to tell. It was in the sixth inning. The Cape Charlesites, by a combination of good luck and with the assistance of the umpire, and by several errors on the part of the Hamptonians, rolled up five runs. It was a scratch fly that caused the trouble, and the umpire called "ball," when the Hamptonians say it should have been "strike" and out. Outside of this inning the game was a hotly contested one, each of the teams played magnificent ball. Hampton had three errors to Cape Charles' two, but Hampton's were more costly.

Probably the feature of the game was Cunningham's fine work. He not only caught a fine game, but had three hits and three runs to his credit. Hopkins had three hits, of which one was a "home." Cape Charles secured four hits off the Hampton's pitchers, against eight by the locals.

The team left Hampton early yesterday morning and were given fine treatment by the Cape Charles boys.

The tabulated score tells the entire story:

NEWPORT NEWS BANK CLERKS WON

Defeated the Hampton Clerks at Baseball on the National Soldiers' Home Diamond.

The game of baseball between the bank clerks of Hampton and Newport News yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the Shipbuilders by the score of 17 to 8. Only seven innings were necessary to give the bankers enough of the game. The Newport News nine had the game from the start.

The Hampton team was captained by Mr. Eugene Irvin, of the Bank of Hampton, while Mr. Arthur Lee, of the First National Bank, acted in that capacity for the Shipbuilders. The game was played on the National Soldiers' Home diamond and was witnessed by a small crowd.

Lenz did the twirling for the visitors and Bradford for the Hamptonians. Hampton made eight errors against Newport News' five.

BRAZILIAN CRUISER BENJAMIN CONSTANT

Vessel With Brazilian Cadets on Board Reached Hampton Roads Yesterday Morning.

The Brazilian cruiser, Benjamin Constant, which has on board several hundred cadets from the Brazilian naval academy, arrived in Hampton Roads at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The cruiser was given the national salute by Fort Monroe and responded to the compliment by firing the same number of guns. It is expected that the Benjamin Constant will go to Norfolk for coal, and later will leave for Yorktown. From Yorktown the cruiser goes to New York, Philadelphia and Annapolis.

The Constant left Brazil on April 20 and has been on a cruise since that date. It is said the Brazilian ship will remain in the United States several weeks, giving the cadets a chance to study the methods of the United States navy.

It is seldom that a Brazilian warship visits Hampton Roads and the presence of the Benjamin Constant attracted much attention around Old Point.

After entering the Roads the cruiser came into Old Point and dropped anchor, where she was later visited by the quarantine officers from the Jamestown. It is said that all on board the cruiser were well.

EARLY DIAMOND BUYING.

South Africa's First Finds Were Paid For in Cows.

South Africa's first diamonds were paid for in cows. The story is told by Joseph B. Robinson, one of the wealthy pioneers of that country. In 1870 he gave eight oxen and a wagon loaded with sugar and tobacco to a native in exchange for a twenty-three carat gem. "The news spread like wildfire through the countryside that a white man was giving away wagons and oxen for bits of stone," he says. "I set all the natives who came to work to seek for diamonds on one side of the Vaal river, and I brought up my own fifty men to hunt for diamonds among the bushes and scrub on the other side of the stream. I had bought the land on both sides of the river, so that I was working on my own property. Next morning at sunrise, when I was having my coffee, I was startled by a loud hulla-ballooing, and, looking out, I saw the whole gang of my men rushing toward me in a state of wild excitement.

"One of them had found a diamond of good size. They all had come to see what I would do with it. 'What will you give me for it?' said the finder. 'I will give you ten cows,' I replied and sent the man into the herd to take his pick. He marked ten of the best cows as his own. The men had never dreamed of making such a bargain. Ten cows for a bit of stone! Off they went again and found diamonds every day. They became rich, and I accumulated a good store of precious stones.

"After we had accumulated a large quantity we decided we would better send them to London. We made a belt full of small pockets, in each of which we placed a diamond. When the belt was filled my partner girded it about his body and started for Cape Town. He never took off the belt until he reached London. And it was in this way the first consignment of African diamonds reached London."

Many a man owes all he has to his wife—and a lot more to other people.

HAD PROPER LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mayor and Police Committee Gave Officers Right to Go to Cape Charles.

Mayor Thornton F. Jones stated last night that the rumor to the effect that Officer John West Cunningham had left his duty yesterday morning without the proper leave of absence was without foundation. Officer Cunningham, as well as Officer Henry Curtis, were given the leave of absence by the proper authorities and there is no reason to believe that their absence will be the means of further trouble in police circles. Mayor Jones and Chairman W. W. Richardson, of the police committee, both allowed Officers Cunningham and Curtis to accompany the Hampton baseball nine to Cape Charles.

Officer Cunningham was quite warm over the report to the effect that he had left his work without first obtaining the consent of the authorities.

Officer Leslie Curtis served for his father and Mr. Tyler Lawson was sworn in as a substitute and served for Mr. Cunningham.
